Dancer Manners & Etiquette

Dancers show respect for themselves by:

- Being prompt for class.
- Being dressed properly for class in assigned color leotard, without underwear under leotards, without jewelry other than small earrings, and with shoe strings - either tucked in or tied in a knot and cut off.
- Having hair up off the neck; it must be in a bun for all ballet classes. For shorter hair, pulling hair back from the face with a headband or clips is acceptable. No hair covering the neck or in the face.

Dancers show respect for others by:

- Keeping their hands to themselves during class.
- Waiting quietly for others to have a turn and for instructions from the teacher.
- Waiting until the music is finished before entering the classroom if they are late to class.
- Talking with one another only during Share Time.
- Supporting other dancers' efforts; never laughing, pointing, whispering, or gossiping.

Dancers show respect for their teacher and the art form they are learning by:

- Being properly dressed and ready for class on time.
- Listening when the teacher speaks; always standing in a "proper dance stance" while listening when the teacher gives combinations or corrections.
- Being prepared for their turn.
- Always asking before leaving the room for any reason and upon returning entering quietly and going around to the back of the room, never through the dancers who are dancing.
- Always finishing every exercise, never walking noisily or showing anger or aggravation.

Dancers show respect for the studio by:

- Leaving gum, food, and drinks outside.
- Never hanging or leaning on the barres.
- Never running or doing gymnastics in the studio or lobby.
- Putting trash in its proper place.
- Putting away books and magazines when finished with them.
- Turning off cell phones.
- Always keeping all belongings zipped inside their dance bag.

Parents show respect for the dance class, teacher, and studio by:

- Coming inside the waiting room to drop off and pick up dancers; it is unsafe to allow children to walk through the parking lot alone.
- Never leaving siblings in the waiting room unattended by a parent.
- Bringing dancers to class on time and picking them up promptly after class.
- Having dancers ready for class before entering the classroom.
- Making sure dancers have had the opportunity to go to the restroom before entering class.
- Knocking before entering the classroom if class is in progress.
- Not letting children stand and hit the viewing window.
- Letting us know in advance, if possible, if a dancer will be absent.
- Quiet in the lobby please while class is in session. Parents should keep the volume down and content rated "G." Teaching dancers and siblings to sit quietly and read while waiting, remembering that the waiting area is also a homework area for many dancers.
- Teaching children to never run or scream in the studio, waiting areas, or parking lot.
- Calling the Customer Care Desk to make an appointment during office hours to discuss any concerns.
- Always remembering that our studio is a gossip-free environment and talking negatively about others is inappropriate behavior and benefits no one.
